Prepare for a Final Income Tax Return a little early under COVID-19 Pandemic

[準備は早めをお願いします コロナ禍の確定申告]

The place for a final income tax return is crowded every year.

For the final income tax return of CY2020, you are recommended to file it via the e-Tax with PCs or smartphones at your home or etc. to avoid the risk of infection. You can make the final income tax return without mistake of calculation on the web-site of National Tax Agency.

If you are salaried employees or pension recipients, display of the smart phones is easier to input.

For filing the income tax return via the e-Tax or the smart phones, you need to have your "My-Number Card" or "an ID plus a password" issued by tax offices in advance. Please prepare them a little early. If you don't utilize the e-Tax, you can send a printed final tax return by postal mail.

For details, please contact Tatebayashi Tax Office at ☎0276-72-4373.

National Fire Prevention Campaign in Autumn [秋の全国火災予防運動]

National Fire Prevention Campaign in Autumn will be carried out for 7 days from November 9th (Mon.) to 15th (Sun.).

■ Seven points for preventing a fire and saving your life.

□ Three Habits:

- Stop smoking in bed absolutely.
- Use stoves at places away from things which are easy to burn.
- Extinguish the fire absolutely when you leave away from a gas stove or etc.

□ Four Measures:

- Install home fire alarms for prevention of evacuation delay.
- Use fireproof material goods for prevention of the fire from bedclothes, clothes, or curtains.
- Install home fire extinguishers so that you can put out the fire while it is small.
- Establish cooperation systems by neighbours to protect elderlies and disables.

■ Point of Campaign:

By the fire service law, installation of the home fire alarm is required for every house. If you do not install, please do so as soon as possible for protecting life of you and you family. If you already installed, please check periodically if it works.

For details, please contact Ota Fire Department at ☎0276-33-0202.
